Getting there and accommodation

Illmitz is a lovely village at Lake Neusiedl, about 60 km from Vienna International Airport and 80 km from Vienna. For participants arriving by train/bus/plane to Vienna, we will organize a bus transfer from Vienna and/or the village Neusiedl am See and/or the airport to Lake Neusiedl and back.

The Biological Station cannot offer accommodation at the building, thus the local tourism office kindly offered their assistance in finding accommodation in Illmitz for all participants.

For your accommodation, please contact

Mr. Gerhard HAIDER (illmitz@illmitz.co.at) or visit www.illmitz.info.
